

Benefits of Connecting Community Care Coordination and Community Development Planning

Better coordination of services and care provided to community

Effective communication among community leaders, providers and social service agencies

Promotion of community services and utilization of local resources

Enhanced marketing community services and promote quality of care

Build community awareness of available resources and services

Improve community perception of local businesses, hospital and clinics

Reduce by-passing of local businesses and health care providers

Retain and grow customer and patient loyalty for long-term success

Reduce duplication of services

Improve reimbursement, local revenue, earnings and jobs

Recover, stabilize and position for the future

This project is supported by the Health Resources and Services Administration (HRSA) of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) as part of a financial assistance award totaling $10,000,000 with 100% funded by HRSA/HHS and $0 amount and 0% funded by non-government sources. The contents are those of the author(s) and do not necessarily represent the official views of, nor an endorsement by HRSA/HHS, or the U.S. Government.